The 3 Words Christians Aren't Allowed to Say.

Brittany Gibson wrote a short article on "The 3 Words Disney Employees Aren't Allowed to Say." I must admit that I didn't know this to be true. She wrote:

"Disney isn't 'the happiest place on earth' without reason. Behind all of the magic, there are tens of thousands of employees making it all possible. (In Disney World alone, there are 62,000 workers, according to Today.) But with that many employees, there needs to be some guidelines. This is especially true for the employees who dress up as Disney characters... But no matter what, Disney cast members are never, ever allowed to say these three words: 'I don't know.'"

She went on to write,

"... If a guest asks you a question, you always have to have an answer, no exceptions ... If you don't know it, find out, but don't say, 'you don't know.' If it's a silly question, make up a silly answer."

As I thought about this from the Christian perspective, and I wondered if this shouldn't be true for people who profess to be Christ followers... after all, don't we really want to be "the happiest place on earth?" Maybe better said, "shouldn't we be the most joyful place on earth?" Yes, I know we shouldn't answer any question asked of us with a silly or made-up answer. Unlike the Disney universe, our answers can have an eternal impact!

When confronted with a question about God, the Bible, the Church, or anything to do with the Christian life, and we are unsure of the answer, the Christian response could be, "I don't know... but I know where I can find the answer." (I hope it is never a made-up answer!!)

Let's face facts, most people who ask about the Bible, church, Christian life, are probably searching for God or a more spiritually minded life. It could be they are looking for greater meaning and purpose in life, and somehow know to ask you. People in this anxious world desire to have more joy, peace and experience the goodness of God. An "I don't know" answer with "but I know where we can find the answer" allows for more conversations and allows us to share in their spiritual journey. Certainly, you can search together or go to another Christian to find the answer and then go back to the questioner... "Remember that question you asked? ... I spoke with my (friend/pastor) and they said, (and give them the answer).

Just in case you were wondering... "If a child asks you what Tinker Bell eats before her flight across the Magic Kingdom during the fireworks, the answer is: 'Very tiny apples.'"

Sharing the journey to know, love, and serve God...

Pastor Paul

Theme

Are you good enough to get into heaven?

Object

A soccer ball, a musical instrument, etc.

Scripture

"Why do you call me good?" Jesus answered. "No one is good—except God alone."

Mark 10:18 (NIV)

Is there something that you do really well? Some of you may play a sport like soccer. If I were to ask you, "Are you a good soccer player?" you might say, "Yes, I am a really good soccer player." But are you good enough to make the "All Star Team" at your school? Perhaps someone here may play a musical instrument. If I were to ask you, "Are a good musician?" You might answer, "Yes I am a good musician." But are you good enough to be chosen to play in the "Honor Band" at your school? All of us are probably good at something, but the question is, "Are we good enough?"

One day a young man came running up to Jesus and asked, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" "Why do you call me good?" Jesus asked. "Only God is good. But to answer your question, you know the commandments, don't you? 'Don't kill, don't commit adultery, don't steal, don't tell lies, don't cheat anyone, honor your father and your mother.'" "I'm pretty good," he answered. "I've obeyed the commandments since I was just a little boy." "That's good," Jesus said, "but not good enough, There is still one thing you must do. Go and sell everything you have and give the money to the poor."

When he heard those words, the young man was very sad, because he had many possessions. Most people would say that the young man was a good man, but being good wasn't good enough to get him into the Kingdom of God. As the young man walked away, Jesus turned to his disciples and said, "It is very hard to enter the Kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed. "Then who can be saved?" they asked. Jesus looked at them and said, "With man it is impossible, but with God anything is possible." How about me? Do you think I'm good enough to get into heaven? How about you? Are you good enough? Is anyone good enough? The answer to all of those questions is, "No!" Not one of us is good enough to get into heaven on our own. Then how can we be saved? How can we have eternal life? With God, anything is possible. The Bible tells us that God so loved the world that he sent his only Son so that whoever believes in him will have eternal life. It isn't our goodness that will get us into heaven. It is our faith in Jesus. We are not good enough, but Jesus is!

Father, help us to remember that it is not our goodness that will get us into heaven. It is our faith in your Son, Jesus Christ. In his name we pray. Amen.

ASH WEDNESDAY IS February 18, 2026

Soup and Chili Pot Luck on 2/15

On Feb 15th, there will be a soup or chili potluck in the fellowship hall after Sunday school. If you are not inclined to make soup or chili, you could bring heart cookies in celebration of Valentine's Day! It's a potluck, so anything edible works! Most of you know the routine: bring your crockpot to the church kitchen and plug it in. If you don't attend the adult SS class, come down to the fellowship hall, drink more coffee, and visit. When SS is finished, we'll have lunch. Just a reminder: If you forget to bring a dish to pass, please stay. There's always plenty to eat at a potluck. Any questions, contact Mr. Ball. See you on 2/15 for Food, fun, and fellowship.

Surrounded by His love, Terry
